

2020 Corporate Social Responsibility Data Update

It is with great pride that we share this 2020 CSR/ESG Data Update, highlighting our progress across key environmental, social, and governance (ESG) areas and reaffirming our purpose to make the world a better place for all children, fans and families. But it is also with a heavy heart that I write this letter without our longtime leader, friend, and ESG champion, Brian Goldner.

Brian served as CEO of Hasbro for 13 years, and Chairman for six of that, and in that time, redefined what a toy company could be – and any company should be – in today’s society. Last year, Brian and the leadership team reimagined the Hasbro Brand Blueprint with ‘Purpose’ distinctly at the center, formally and firmly embedding the company’s longstanding commitment to ESG into its business strategy.

In 2020 and 2021, we recognized the importance of our people and planet more than ever during the pandemic and accelerated our impact across all areas of ESG. For example, we doubled our philanthropic giving year-over-year in 2020, with a total of $25.6 million in philanthropic support, impacting more than 4 million children around the world in need of food and support during school closures and shutdowns. We continued to progress our industry-leading environmental initiatives, including our ambitious goal to eliminate plastic from new product packaging by the end of 2022. It is because of this deep commitment to purpose exemplified by Brian, the leadership team, and the entire Hasbro family that the company was once again honored as one of this year’s 100 Best Corporate Citizens by 3BL Media and one of the 2021 World’s Most Ethical Companies by Ethisphere – our 10th consecutive year placing on these important business rankings.

We are immensely proud of the entire Hasbro team for their steadfast commitment to operating our business responsibly and sustainably – and with purpose – to ensure meaningful and sustainable impact on our world. And while we are pleased with our continued progress, we are committed to continually raising the bar as a leader in the CSR/ESG space.

Rich Stoddart
Interim Chief Executive Officer
Hasbro, Inc.

For nearly two decades, I’ve had the privilege to serve on the Hasbro Board of Directors, and throughout that time, we have played an active role in overseeing the ESG performance of the company. The Board has always emphasized CSR as a critical component of our governance responsibility, and we’re proud to be one of the first companies in the industry to have formalized ESG oversight at the Board level.

I currently serve as the Chair of the Nominating, Governance & Social Responsibility Committee which has the specific duty of considering the full range of ESG impacts, and I’m very proud of the entire Hasbro team for the progress made over the last 18 months. Across the entire company, we believe that doing good leads to doing well, and with this mindset, Brian Goldner’s legacy continues. He was a visionary leader who committed to ESG as not only the right thing to do but also as a strategic advantage for Hasbro.

In addition to placing Purpose at the center of the Hasbro Brand Blueprint, the company also elevated and established Purpose and ESG as essential to Hasbro’s long-term success and shareholder value with the creation of a new Global Purpose Organization led by a new c-suite leader, our Chief Purpose Officer, Kathrin Belliveau. This team is expressly focused on elevating and accelerating Hasbro’s positive impact around the world.

Hasbro’s steadfast commitment to creating a more sustainable and equitable world will continue to guide everything we do, and this 2020 CSR/ESG Data Update is designed to transparently share where we are on that journey and what lies ahead. We hope you enjoy reading.

Ted Philip
Chair, Nominating, Governance and Social Responsibility Committee
Hasbro, Inc. Board of Directors

About This CSR Update

Our 2020 Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Data Update highlights our performance for calendar year 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020). This supplements Hasbro's 2019-2020 Corporate Social Responsibility Update report and our last comprehensive 2016 Corporate Social Responsibility Report. These reports should be referenced for any specific details on our programs outside of this 2020 CSR Data Update. The next full-year report will be available in 2022.

This update represents our environmental, social and governance (ESG) impacts, as we continue to be committed to improving our performance and the collection and verification of our data. Several significant changes in our business and the context in which we operate have influenced the results highlighted in this update. Key updates include the impacts of COVID-19 on office and distribution center activity and employee travel; the integration of the recently acquired Entertainment One (eOne) business resulting in an increased number of sites and employees; and continuous improvement in data collection and reporting. These three factors have impacted our results primarily in the areas of energy, emissions and employee-related data, which are important to keep in mind regarding year-on-year comparisons.

We have prepared this CSR Update in alignment with the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) Standards guidelines and the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) Toys & Sporting Goods and Media & Entertainment industry standards. In addition to aligning with SASB, we also sit on the SASB Standards Advisory Group committee, ensuring we are part of the conversation on evolving ESG disclosures. All of our data is reviewed and verified internally as well as externally, in some cases. Reporting and performance data include information on Hasbro owned and operated facilities (offices and distribution centers) unless stated otherwise. We verify our greenhouse gas emissions data on an annual basis using a third-party assurance provider and disclose their assurance statement in our annual CDP report.

/// Product Responsibility (Product Safety and Responsible Marketing)

Product Safety

Total number of incidents of non-compliance with regulations and voluntary codes concerning health and safety impacts of products and services during their life cycle. (GRI G4-PR2 / GRI 416-2)	1 Product safety is a top priority at Hasbro, and our rigorous and stringent quality assurance and safety standards apply to all Hasbro products. In 2020, through our robust checks and balances, we were made aware of a non-compliance in a small number of Super Soaker blasters and immediately took steps to recall the products. We recalled two models of Super Soaker blasters because some of the stickers on the blasters contained lead in excess of limits. The issue arose when a supplier in India sourced decorative stickers from an unauthorized supplier, in violation of Hasbro's quality assurance requirements. Upon learning that some of the stickers' ink contained levels of lead in excess of regulatory limits, we promptly announced a recall of the blasters in all the markets in which they were sold. There were no injuries associated with the stickers, which presented a low toxicological risk. Finally, as part of our steadfast commitment to continuous improvement, we put corrective actions in place with the manufacturer and launched re-training across all manufacturers in our entire supply chain to reinforce the importance of strict adherence to our quality assurance procedures and requirements.

4 For 2020 data, the acquisition of eOne resulted in a significant increase in the number of facilities included in this report. The emissions for all sites that do not have available energy consumption data are estimated based on electricity and natural gas consumption per square foot of similar sites with reported data.

5 Scope 1 (direct emissions) include sources of stationary combustion, mobile combustion and refrigerants. Scope 2 (indirect emissions) include consumption of purchased electricity.

6 For 2020, we purchased Verified Carbon Offsets to match our Scope 1 emissions and Scope 3 employee travel. We also purchased carbon offsets to address the small percentage of Scope 2 emissions where RECs were not available. For details on annual carbon offset and REC purchases, please see our annual Renewable Energy Performance Statements for the corresponding years.

7 RECs were purchased to address more than 100% of Hasbro electricity use in all markets except for Argentina, New Zealand, and South Korea, where RECs were not available. Please see Hasbro's 2021 Renewable Energy and Greenhouse Gas Emissions Statement for further details on our renewable energy program.

8 2019 Tier 1 manufacturing emissions are based on data from our manufacturing vendors who represent approximately 80% of our shipped product value for that year.

9 Hasbro operates its facilities in accordance with all regulatory environmental requirements. Where applicable, Hasbro reports any wastes and emissions to the required local, state and federal regulatory bodies. Hasbro does not generate reportable quantities of NOx and SOx because our emissions are de minimis and below reporting thresholds, including when normalized.

10 Hasbro is a de minimis emitter of substances listed in the U.S. EPA Toxic Release Inventory (TRI). These materials do not meet the reporting threshold defined by the EPA.

11 Energy associated with Hasbro Scope 1 and 2 activities.

12 The U.S. EIA Energy Conversion Calculators and DEFRA - UK Government GHG Conversion Factors for Company Reporting were used to convert emissions to gigajoules.

13 Data is not available for a number of operated leased facilities where Hasbro waste and water was not segregated.

14 Primary hazardous waste materials generated include solvent and paint-related waste.

15 Hasbro requires Responsible Business Alliance (RBA) audits for all our third-party manufacturers and high-volume subcontractors. RBA audits assess compliance adherence to Environmental standards, in addition to Labor, Health & Safety, Ethics and Management Systems.
